IMAGINE PEACE JUNIORS CAMP

The Imagine Peace Juniors Camp is a privileged program, designed for children and teenagers 10 to 16 years old coming from all over the world and organised by the International Olympic Truce Centre in collaboration with SPORTCAMP. Through this unique opportunity participants have the chance to practice ancient sports, learn about the notion of the Olympic Truce and explore how its values can influence their personalities, while developing leadership skills. The participants will experience activities according to their age category: Juniors aged 10-12 and Teens aged 13-16.

THE PROGRAM CONSISTS OF FIVE MAIN PILLARS:

- 1 Ancient Greek Sports
- 2 Olympic Truce Ideals
- 3 Respecting Diversity
- 4 Leadership Skills
- 5 Friendship

HIGHLIGHTS

1. PANKRATION

Pankration was a discipline introduced in the 648 BC Greek Olympic Games. The athletes used boxing and wrestling, as well as kicks, holds, joint-locks and chokes on the ground, technique with close similarities to modern mixed martial arts. In Greek mythology, it is said that Hercules and Theseus invented Pankration, by using wrestling and boxing in their combats.

At the Camp, the participants will become familiar to Pankration discipline by experienced and professional athletes and coaches, approved by the Hellenic Federation of Pankration. A demonstration will initially take place and then the participants will engage with the athletes, separate into pairs and try out certain techniques.

2. EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM: OLYMPIC IDEALS, OLYMPIC TRUCE & RESPECTING DIVERSITY

An interactive training program which emphasizes on the Olympic Ideals, Olympic Truce, Peace and Respect of Diversity.

Specialized educators and trainers of the International Olympic Truce Centre will introduce these values, primarily with theoretical lessons, where the participants get familiar with the terms, their meaning and importance.

Interactive workshops, games, social interaction and teamwork, will help the participants incorporate these values, embrace the Olympic spirit and implement it in their everyday lives.

3. MEET THE CHAMPIONS

An once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to meet Olympic medalists and Olympians from major sport disciplines and get inspired by them as role models! The Olympians will first introduce themselves and discuss meaningful aspects of their lives. In a relevant seminar, they will speak about their experiences, show videos of their achievements and hold an open discussion with the participants.

Through activities, interactive techniques and role-playing games, children develop a better understanding of the power of sport and the importance of its inclusion in their everyday lives. Additionally, the opportunity of exchanging opinions through constructive dialogue with Olympians & champions, on issues such as violence in-and-out of the field or doping, which remain a plague of our era, awakens children and helps them raise questions about significant concerns of our times.

4. PRESENTATION AND SIMULATION OF THE ANCIENT GREEK OLYMPIC GAMES

A fun-filled and educational day, where the participants will experience a full simulation of the ancient Olympic Games and take part in all the stages, including competing in various sports, ceremonies and symbolisms. In the beginning, a seminar of the Ancient Greek Olympic Games and their history will be conducted.

The participants will then simulate the Games: conduct the opening ceremony, dress in special clothes, play musical instruments of that time and follow all the symbolisms and ceremonial process.

They will compete in ancient Greek Olympic Sports, some of which exist nowadays: pentathlon, javelin, sphere, long jump and running. Finally, the athletes will be awarded with the traditional olive clove, in an award ceremony conducted according to the tradition and protocol of the ancient Olympic Games.

SCOPE AND AIMS

The overall aim of the Imagine Peace Juniors Camp is to engage children and teenagers from various countries in interactive workshops and sport activities that promote the Olympic Truce Ideals (peace, dialogue and conflict resolution).

Through the use of non-formal educational techniques and the active participation of trainers, athletes and Olympians, acting as role models, who can communicate with campers effectively, the Camp aims to familiarise them with notions such as tolerance, equality and non-discrimination, while practicing sport and fun activities.

Ultimately, campers acquire a more positive attitude towards the power of sport as a vital element in their everyday lives.

 The participants enjoy the exclusive privilege of being educated and accommodated in the high aesthetic infrastructure of the International Olympic Academy and follow the steps of the famous Olympic movement leaders.

BENEFITS FOR THE PARTICIPANTS

- Develop self-confidence and interpersonal and communication skills (dialogue, cooperation, friendship and understanding)
- Learn about notions such as equality, respect for diversity, peaceful coexistence, fair play and tolerance
- Practice ancient sports in their authentic form
- Enjoy fun activities and cultural visits
- Interact in a multicultural environment
- Elaborate leadership & dynamic attitude

The working language is English.

THE LOCATION
